$20,000 PAID TO COUNTY TREASURER BY COBURN ESTATE

On Tuesday the executors of the last will and testament of Loren Coburn, deceased, paid in to the county treasury the sum of $20,000 on account of the inheritance tax of the estate. Mr. Chamberlain, the treasurer, says that this was the largest sum received by him this year for inheritance tax. About as much more is due the state from the estate. The inheritance tax was levied by State Controller John S. Chambers and was paid on Tuesday by Attorney Cullinan for the executors Sarah S. Coburn and C. H. Widemann.

WILL IRWIN WRITES OF HIS VISIT TO WOODRUFF INN

Dined at La Honda with Henri Devers one night last week, and dined mightily well, for Henri has some French chef, believe me. Henri told me, then, that the Woodruff Inn was going to give a reception and benefit ball to the La Honda boys who have come back from "over there."

"Five boys we sent from this little town," said Henri. One, Joseph Bassana, was killed. The other four are back, two of them wounded. "I wish," said Henri, "that you'd write something to put in the papers, because you were over there, and know what the boys have been through. We want a good crowd, because the boys deserve it."

I would have done it anyway; but who could refuse anything to Henri?

after eating one of his dinners?

Five enlisted, one of them dead and two wounded! That means 600 per cent casualties for the La Honda contingent. Divisions have gone all through this war and acquitted themselves gloriously with a smaller percentage of casualties than that. La Honda has certainly done her bit.

I wonder if anyone over here appreciates what it meant to do your bit in France? There was the long strain of the trenches, with death falling in showers every hour. There were the heart-breaking marches, when you finished on your nerve, in a wood almost to welcome death. There were the sickening moments when you waited to go "over the top," followed by the terrible bewildering minutes when the earth blew up all about you. There were the smells, the vermin, the hungry days, the sleepless nights. Oh, but I can't describe it. A thousand writers have tried, and all have failed.

But believe me, if you only knew a hundredth part of what they have gone through to keep our California safe and happy and prosperous, you'd feel that the least you can do for them is to crank up your old bus on the night of Saturday, May 17 and run over to La Honda and show that you really appreciate Louis Zanone, James Zanone, Frank Mesquite and Joseph Kadima, the boys who did their bit.

WILL IRWIN.

FIFTY-THIRD MEETING OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES

The fifty-third annual meeting of the Santa Clara District Association of Congregational Churches took place in the Congregational church of this city on Wednesday morning and continued in session until late Thursday afternoon. Included in the association are the counties of San Mateo, Santa Clara, Monterey and Santa Cruz and forty delegates from these localities took part in the deliberations of the association. An excellent program had been arranged. Several able speakers addressed the conference. Rev. F. F. Goodsell, a Y. M. C. A. worker who had spent two years in the big cities of Russia gave an able lecture on "Bolshevism and the Christian Church." From his observations in Russia he felt certain the Bolshevism was doomed but that a milder form of socialism would take its place that would appease the people in their radicalism. The speaker told of the horrors of Bolshevism, saying that he knew where the followers of this cult had taken all the prominent people of a certain town and shot them. Their idea is to destroy capital. Goodsell believed that Bolshevism would never take root in this country for the reason that the people were too enlightened and that nearly everyone owned his home and they would not want it destroyed.

Rev. B. C. Preston, who spent two years in Red Cross work in Europe, delivered an eloquent address on "The Religion of the Dough Boy." He said that while on a visit to Italy he saw only one regiment of American soldiers but when they marched down the street yelling the Italians thought there were 200,000 in line and so told their companions. Mr. Preston said that the proportion of the American soldier to get to the battle line was one in 35. The musical portion of the program was furnished by Professor O. M. Carrington. The delegates were well pleased with their entertainment in Redwood City and went away with the knowledge that the conference was the most successful ever held in the district.

SARAH S. COBURN PETITIONS COURT FOR ALLOWANCE

Mrs. Sarah S. Coburn, widow of Loren Coburn, has petitioned the superior court for a family allowance and has asked the court to set aside a homestead to her and provide suitable furniture for her dwelling. The executors of the last will and testament of Loren Coburn, deceased, Mrs. Sarah S. Coburn and C. H. Widemann, have also asked the court for an order to set aside the personal property of the estate consisting of furniture valued at $200, two brown bears worth $300 and two promissory notes valued at $39,000. They also ask that the Merced ranch comprising of 1545 acres be sold. It is appraised at $19,312.50. The executors need the funds to pay the debts of the estate and to liquidate current expenses. Mr. Estuene Cullinan, of the law firm of Cullinan and Hickey, filed these petitions on Tuesday and with them filed the following claims for attorney fees: Cullinan and Hickey, for legal services rendered since 1914, $6000; Matt T. Sullivan and Cullinan and Hickey, for services rendered covering a period from November 17, 1914, to $10,334; John L. McNab and Cullinan and Hickey, covering a period from August 3, 1915 to January 31, 1918, $5000, making a total of $21,334. The claims were approved by the executors and Judge Buck. This is the first time that such legal claims were allowed without a contest. Every lawyer who represented Coburn in his numerous law suits were compelled to sue for his fees. The claim of S. A. White for $1110 for funeral expenses was also allowed. Loren Coburn died on November 13, 1918, leaving an estate valued at nearly a million.

EUGENIE E. MEYER ESTATE TO BE DISTRIBUTED. John Henry Meyer, executor of the last will and testament of Eugenie E. Meyer, deceased, has filed his final account and petition for distribution. The account shows the total receipts to be $3482.41 and the total disbursements $2376.38, leaving a balance of $1106.03 in cash to be distributed. The estate is appraised at $65,777.18. It consists of real estate, bonds and stock. The amount of the inheritance tax was $281.64. The bulk of the estate is to be distributed to the children of the deceased.

J. R. McAULIFF IS HOME FROM OVERSEAS DUTY

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McAuliffe went up to San Francisco on Wednesday to greet their young son, J. R. McAuliffe, who arrived home from France that day with the Eighteenth Engineers with whom he left in August 1917. He only spent a short time at Camp Lewis when he was sent to the front to erect docks, railroads, barracks for the government. Before enlisting he was a deputy in the county surveyor's office. He is a graduate of the local high school. He was greeted as he arrived at the Ferry Building by his parents and his two brothers and his sister, all of whom were uniforms of the service. The two brothers were recently mustered out of the service and Miss McAuliffe is still a yeomanette in the army.

IMPROVEMENT BONDS

GROWING IN FAVOR DAILY

It is conceded that the bond election to take place on May 27 will be carried by a big vote. The tax payers have investigated the whole matter and have fully made up their mind that the money to be raised is absolutely needed to make necessary town improvements. They believe in the old saying that "a stitch in time saves nine." If the contemplated improvements are not made now it will cost the municipality much more if made later. There is no getting away from the fact that these repairs and improvements are needed and must be done. If the bond issue fails then the trustee have no alternative but to levy a direct tax which will be a burden on all property owners alike. The bond issue would fall easier on everyone. So come out, you, Mr. Taxpayer, on May 27 and vote for the bonds, thus adding the success of the issue and preventing an unnecessary burden upon the people who are already heavily loaded with taxes.

THE SUPERVISORS

HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, May 11 at 10 a. m., there being present John MacBain, president, T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, J. M. Francis and Dr. C. V. Thompson.

A communication was received from the Social Service Commission making certain recommendations for increasing county and state aid in aid in other cases. The report of the commission was accepted, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, and ordered filed.

The report of W. J. Graef, in charge of the squirrel extermination work in the county, showing expenditures for the month of April, 1919, in the sum of $570.14, was accepted and ordered filed, on motion of Francis, seconded by Brown.

A deed to the lot purchased by the county for a jail site in Halfmoon Bay was received from John J. Higgins, the owner of the property, and on motion of Francis, seconded by Thompson, it was ordered accepted, and the clerk was directed to have the instrument recorded.

A communication was received from the Peninsula Burner and Oil company of San Mateo, offering to install one of its oil burning systems in the county farm and hospital for the sum of $192.

J. R. Eubanks, the superintendent of the county farm and hospital, who was present at the meeting, explained that he was having a great deal of trouble with the gasoline engine connected with the present oil burning system, having purchased a new engine in February, which was connected with the old system. He said he believed the installation of a gravity working system would be a solution of the difficulty.

After considerable discussion, the matter was referred by Chairman MacBain to the county hospital committee to take up with the firm who sold the gasoline engine and ascertain what could be done towards getting it in proper running order.

The following applications were received for liquor licenses and were given their first reading: First Township—L. Bosso, Colma Fourth Township—G. S. Wilson, Halfmoon Bay.

Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Bond appeared before the board in the interest of Assembly Bills Nos. 242, 244, 405 and 402. The two former bills have to do with the raising of the State School Funds and the latter a State apportionment. The two latter bills provide for an increase in the county apportionment of schools in order to allow each school at least $900 a year for teachers. Mr. Bond explained that the increase will raise the taxes from two to three cents as far as the schools are concerned.

The board, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, instructed Mrs. Nash, to write the Governor of the State and ask him to sign the above bills.

County Surveyor George A. Kneese submitted specifications for the filling of First and Second avenues in the Homestead, First Township, and the same were accepted, on motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids.

Chairman MacBain addressed the board and stated that it would be necessary to provide motor transportation of some kind for the new hospital commissioner, and he suggested that the Ford runabout now used by the social service commission be turned over to the former official and that a new machine be purchased for the social service commission. He explained that he had secured a price on a Chevrolet car of $836.85 and that this company was willing to allow $250 on the Ford formerly used by the social service commission.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Thompson, the board decided to turn over the runabout to the horticultural commission, as suggested by Chairman MacBain and to turn in the old car to apply on the purchase of the Chevrolet at the above price, the money for the purchase to be taken out of the nursing funds of the county.

A claim from the city of San Mateo, amounting to $245 for its apportionment of the motor vehicle fines during the past year, was ordered referred to District Attorney Swart, on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey.

The regular monthly claims were passed and allowed, on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey.

The board adjourned at 12:20 p. m. to Monday, May 19.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

A few Sundays ago when gliding down the peninsula with a speed-burning son-in-law at the wheel, we were approaching Mayfield, and we remarked to the man at the throttle that we were now about to enter the city limits of one of the most up-to-date municipalities of any town in this garden spot of the world, with the possible exception of San Carlos and Milpitas, and we warned him that the city fathers of this progressive city and guardians of the lives of its citizens, had taken every precaution to protect its inhabitants against the reckless "tin lizzy" fiends by reducing the speed to 15 miles per hour through their city thoroughfares. After we had gotten safely through this charming little city our speed-burning son-in-law remarked, "that the city fathers were to be congratulated upon their splendid foresight, in placing a more practical barrier against the speed fiend than that of paper ordinances on their statute books, by cutting their principal main street up into sections high and low places alternating, by which the speed-burner is forced to reduce speed to the minimum in protection of his own life and that of his car." Other city officials take notice, and profit thereby.

Miss Ione MacDonald returned to her home in Berkeley after a fortnight's visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Fred W. Lippman.

Mr. Edwin A. Modie, who has been with the Pacific Hardware and Steel company as Auto machinist for the past two years has gone with the Reliance Garage at Mountain View, as foreman at an advanced salary. Within the next few days the Reliance will move to the modern and well-equipped garage on the state highway and will be prepared to handle all kinds of auto repair work.

Mr. Modie, (the speed burner) will soon build a new home at Los Altos where he purchased property some time ago with a view of locating at this favorite spot on the peninsula.

Mrs. Lester A. Conklin with her brood of three has returned home after a week's visit with relatives and friends in the bay cities.

Mrs. Mary Hooker Smith in company with her nephew, a Mr. Jones and his wife from Los Angeles left last Sunday morning for Hinsdale, New Hampshire, her girlhood home. Mrs. Smith will try to dispose of the old homestead while east as it has become too great a task for her sister, Mrs. Robertson of San Francisco, to look after when located at such great distance. Mrs. Smith expects to be absent about eight weeks. Mrs. J. W. Buell, sister of Mrs. John Farnham, was also of the party on her return to her home at Leicester, Junction, Vermont. Mrs. Buell has been a frequent visitor to California, she having extended her visit about ten months this time visiting with relatives here and in other parts of the state.

Peninsula residents employed at the shipyards now have the advantage of a special train. This train leaves Redwood City directly behind train No. 39, due out of Redwood at 6:59 a. m., and makes all stops to pick up passengers between Redwood and the shipyards. This train was out to relieve train 39 of the heavy travel at this hour, and to avoid stopping No. 39 at the shipyards.

Owing to the large influx of residents the past few weeks, who have maintained the Teddy Roosevelt standard of families to so high a degree our school board has been forced to place a large order for school equipment in the matter of desks and other fixtures.

Mrs. Fred W. Lippman has been appointed to solicit funds to be used in the maintenance of the girls' center at Redwood City, where our little tots are so well looked after and taken care of outside of school hours. City three more boys, two of whom have entered our schools and one commutes with his father to the city.

Mrs. Stuart of Berkeley who recently purchased property near her sister, Mrs. L. C. Zook, on Arroyo avenue will soon set up her tent, as have the Zooks', and move to watch the building of her new home which will be under construction in a very short time.

The C. C. Morse company have selected the musical and euphonious name of "Laurelone" for their magnificent trial gardens here. This name was chosen particularly for the reason that there is a picturesque group or cluster of Laurel trees near the buildings at the rear of the gardens. The name is also appropriate to the woodland fancies given the streets of our rustic little village, one bearing the name of Laurel, and which also junctions with the Morse property.

San Carlos is growing so rapidly that its swaddling clothes are at the point of bursting, and we fear that we can't much longer confine our little speck to one column in the Mayfield News and the Redwood City Times-Gazette, but with a little more encouragement from the local politicians, the local business men and the citizens of the twin villages of Belmont and San Carlos we will establish a weekly news scatterer which will be representative of these two growing and prosperous peninsula towns, what say you, Mr. and Mrs. Citizen? Are you willing to support it to the extent of one year's subscription and your advertising. Or do you want to pride yourself in your town boasting a newspaper?

Don't forget to purchase your Chautauqua tickets from your postmaster so he won't be stuck for the whole $16.50, and show the folks of Redwood City that we also have a taste for art, music and literature.

WOODSIDE NOTES

Charles T. Bradley closed his home here during the week and accompanied by his wife and young son, departed for Emerald Bay, Lake Tahoe, to spend the summer. He owns a beautiful place on the shores of the lake.

James MacDonald, superintendent of the Ormondale Stock Farm, during the week sold six hogs nine months old, to the Western Meat company for $550. There are money in the hog business at this price.

During the week Andrew Welsh disposed of a nine month bull calf to a Menlo Park man receiving the fancy price of $900 for the animal. The calf was a thoroughbred having a splendid pedigree.

"My baking powder," says the smooth solicitor, "costs less than Royal."

But he omits to say that it often leaves a bitter taste, that food made with it is likely to stale in a day and that it contains alum, which is condemned by many medical authorities for use in food.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

William T. Thomson, a well-known resident of Menlo Heights, passed away at his home Monday morning following a long illness. The deceased was at one time a prominent contractor and builder in San Francisco. He had been a resident of Menlo Park Heights for about fourteen years. Thomson was a native of Maryland and was 65 years of age. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him and his death is regretted by a large circle of friends. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Minnie S. Thompson, and the following sons and daughters: William H., Captain Stanley A., and Ruth L. Thompson, Mrs. Grace T. Cohan and Mrs. Lloyd Douglas. The deceased was a prominent member of the Masonic order, National Union and other organizations.

The funeral was held Wednesday morning from the Redwood City Undertaking parlors on Broadway, thence to Cypress Lawn, where services were conducted in the cemetery chapel by Rev. Hugh Montgomery pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church of this place.

Mrs. Emma M. Caldwell, beloved wife of Rev. John M. Caldwell, D. D., rector of the Presbyterian church, passed away at the Presbyterian parsonage on Monday last following a long illness. She was the mother of Mrs. Sue Merrill and Mrs. Mayola Pease of Chicago and Mrs. Calla C. Leane of Adelaide, Australia. She was a native of Maine, aged 72 years. Mrs. Caldwell was a devoted Christian, a loving mother, a good neighbor and a kind wife. Those who know her intimately speak in the highest terms of her noble character and splendid pure life. Her husband, who survives her, held at one time the highest charges in the Presbyterian church at Chicago.

T. W. Nendick and his charming daughter departed during the week for San Diego to permanently reside. Mr. Nendick's son is located there with the aviation corps. Mr. Nendick conducted the Fremont candy store in connection with his sign painting for the past two years.

Miss Essie McEvoy writes to her parents from Chicago where she is enjoying her trip east. She left here on May first to visit New York, and other states. Miss McEvoy will spend some time at Gary, Indiana, where her aunt, Mrs. William McDonald resides. She will be absent until the middle of June.

The hostess house at Camp Fremont where so many relatives of the soldiers who trained there were entertained, is being removed this week to Palo Alto. It was purchased by the Community Center of the College town and will be a public building and will be located near the Southern Pacific company's depot.

Mrs. J. Leroy Nickel moved down from the city during the week. She plans to have many house parties during the season.

The big whist drive, under the auspices of the Menlo Park Horticultural Society in Trinity hall on Tuesday evening, May 22, promises to be a big event. Valuable prizes are to be given to the winners of the game.

Mr. Readeau of the Camp Garage is recovering from his operation performed in San Francisco recently and will be home in about two weeks. In his absence Mr. and Mrs. Readeau's adopted daughter, Miss Gage, is conducting the business. She appreciates the patronage accorded her by the kind public and for the sympathy extended by all.

who at one time conducted the store now occupied by Fred Nessler, passed away in Palo Alto on Thursday last following a lingering illness. She is survived by her husband and one daughter.

Last Monday Mrs. E. P. Crist, nee Margaret, Reynard, was operated upon for appendicitis in the army hospital at Fort Russell, Wyoming, where her husband is located. A telegram to her parents here would indicate that she will recover and will soon be convalescent. Mrs. Crist left here last year after her marriage to Mr. Crist who was a soldier at Camp Fremont. He has not as yet been discharged from the service.

Philip Blanchard arrived home from New York last week having been discharged from the army. Mrs. Lacy's beautiful home at Atherton was completely destroyed by fire late Saturday night. The origin of the blaze is not known but it is thought it started from a defective flue in the dining room. The loss was covered by insurance and Mrs. Lacy states that she will rebuild during the coming summer. The fire department was on the scene early but the flames had gotten such a headway that it was impossible to save the burning structure. The firemen worked diligently and under many difficulties. In the dark it was impossible to find the hydrant covered by tall grass. They did all they could to save the building. Trained fire fighters could not have done any more. They deserve praise instead of criticism.

George Angus returned from France with a hospital unit on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Angus went to the city to greet their son. He was here last evening and was greeted by his many friends.

Vincent Sexton, who enlisted with the Eighteenth Engineers and went to France in August, 1917, arrived home on Wednesday and will be here today. His family went up to greet him as he landed from the east. Young Sexton had a world of experience in France. His regiment assisted in building the long docks at Bordeaux, constructed railroads to the battle fronts and erected large barracks. Mr. Sexton will resume his position with the railroad company at San Francisco.

William Glynn met with a serious accident last Friday at the parochial school. He fell from a tree on the convent grounds and suffered a fracture of both his wrists. The little fellow was taken home by a passing machine and later removed to a Palo Alto hospital. He is now at home and is doing nicely. The boy will not
